(b) “The Committee” means a market committee constituted under section 7 of the Act;

(c) “Licensee” means a person to whom a licence has been granted in exercise of the powers conferred by the Act;

(d) "Rules" means the rules made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 27 of the Act;

(e) "Kacha Arhtiya" means a dealer, who in consideration of commission offers his services to sell agricultural produce belonging to growers or others;

(f) "Pacca Arhtiya" means a commission agent who sets up, establishes or continues or allows to set up, established or continued any place in a notified market area for the sale and purchase of agricultural produce;

(g) "Warehouseman" means a person who stores agricultural produce for himself for selling, at some future time or stores agricultural produce belonging to others in lieu of storage charges in the same form;

(h) "Vegetables" mean agricultural produce such as potatoes, onions, garlic, turmeric, green peas, tomato and cauliflower, or any other types of vegetables which the Himachal Pradesh Marketing Board may notify from time to time;

(i) "Authorised weights" mean the metric weights manufactured by such persons or firms as have been duly authorised in this behalf and have been corrected and stamped by the Inspectors of Weights and Measures of Himachal Pradesh and are embossed with 'Himachal Pradesh' in the bottom hole.

3. Headquarters.—The headquarters of a Committee shall be at the place specified in the notification issued under section 7 of the Act.

4. Time and place of a meeting:—A meeting of the Committee shall ordinarily be held at the office of the Committee, at least once in three months on a date and at time fixed by the Chairman. The Chairman, may at his own discretion, and shall on the requisition in writing of not less than half the total numbers of the members of the Committee, call an emergent meeting of the Committee to transact business of importance. The Chairman may, for administrative convenience in matters of routine and of urgent and important business which cannot be delayed till an urgent meeting can be called, obtain the opinion of the members of the Committee by circulation of the relevant papers among its members. Such papers along with the action taken shall be placed before the Committee at its next meeting for confirmation.

5. Manner of convening a meeting and of giving notice thereof.—Notice of every meeting, with the agenda shall be issued by the Chairman at least fifteen days before the date of the meeting. Every such notice shall state the place, the day and the hour of the proposed meeting. Papers relating to any subject included in the agenda of any meeting shall be opened for inspection by any member at the office of the meeting during the usual office hours. Any emergent meeting convened, under Bye-law 4, by the Chairman of his own accord or at the instance of the members may be held at shorter notice of not less than 24 hours.

6. Conduct of proceedings at a meeting.—(1) Any member wishing to bring any proposition before the Committee shall give written intimation to the Chairman of his intention to do so and shall also send a draft of the proposition so as to reach the Chairman at least three days before the date of the meeting, which shall then be included in the agenda for the meeting.

(2) Any matter which is not included in the agenda shall not be brought forward for discussion at any meeting except with the consent of the majority of the members present.

(3) Every proposition, other than the one brought-up officially by the Chairman and every amendment, shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another, and until so proposed seconded and reduced to writing under the directions of the Chairman of the meeting, no proposition or amendment shall be discussed.

(4) Any amendment may be moved after the original proposition has been duly made, seconded and recorded.

(5) Every proposition or amendment so moved shall be recorded in the minutes of the proceedings with the names of the proposer and seconder.

(6) When a proposition or amendment has been duly proposed, seconded and reduced to writing, the members present shall be entitled to discuss the same, provided that, except with the special permission of the Chairman, no member shall speak more than once on any proposition or amendment thereof until all the members present, desirous of speaking, have had their turn. After all members desirous of speaking have had their say, the mover of the proposition or amendment shall be entitled to reply.

(7) When an amendment has been brought to any proposition, the amendment shall be put to the vote first. If it is carried, it shall become a substantive proposition and shall be put to the vote as such. If it is not carried, the original proposition shall be put to the vote. When there are more amendments than one, they shall be put in the order reverse to that in which they were proposed.

(8) The Chairman shall be entitled to speak and vote on all questions at a meeting. Voting by proxy will not be permissible. Any member may decline to vote on any subject without assigning any reason therefor. Voting shall ordinarily be done by show of hands, but the Chairman may, at the request of any member, direct that in any particular case votes shall be taken by ballot.

(9) If any one or more members present at a meeting refuse to obey the ruling of the Chairman on any matter, he may adjourn meeting at once, and when he has declared the meeting once adjourned on this ground the subsequent proceedings of the meeting, if any, shall be void, and shall not appear in the minutes. In all such cases, the Chairman shall record in his own handwriting in the minute book the reason for the adjournment unless he is prevented by sufficient cause from so doing.

(10) After calling the attention of the meeting to the conduct of a member who persists in speaking or in arguing upon a matter which, in the opinion of the Chairman is irrelevant, or in repeating his own arguments or the arguments used by other members the Chairman may direct the member concerned to discontinue his speech.

(11) The Chairman may direct any member whose conduct in his opinion is disorderly to withdraw immediately from the meeting, and any member so ordered to withdraw shall do so forthwith and shall, unless recalled by the Chairman, absent himself during the meeting. The Chairman may cause to be summarily removed any member who disobeys an order to withdraw made under this Bye-law.

(12) When a proposition or amendment has been declared by the Chairman as duly carried, no further proposal for amending it shall be entertained at that meeting.

(13) A resume of every discussion with the number of votes for or against each motion or amendment shall be recorded by the Chairman or under his direction and supervision.

(14) Every member shall be at liberty to call the attention of the Chairman to a point of order even when a member is speaking on a point of order being raised. The member addressing the meeting shall resume his seat until the question has been declared by the Chairman.

(15) Except with the recorded consent of not less than 5/9 members of the Committee, no subject once finally disposed of shall be reconsidered within three months.

(16) All the proceedings shall be recorded in English or Hindi according to the convenience of the Committee.

(17) A record of the proceedings shall be prepared by or under the order and supervision of the Chairman thereof and shall be signed by him. The proceedings shall then be placed before the next meeting for confirmation.

(18) A copy of the proceedings shall be placed in the office of the Committee for reference by the members thereof, and shall at all reasonable times and without any charges be open to their inspection.

(19) The Chairman may for sufficient reasons, adjourn any meeting from time to time, but no business other than that left over at the previous meeting shall be transacted at the adjourned meeting unless a separate notice and a separate agenda have been issued in respect thereof in accordance with Bye-law No. 5.

(20) If quorum of any meeting is not complete within half an hour of the appointed time of the meeting, the meeting shall be taken to have been adjourned.

(21) Any member who fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee without reasons that are beyond his control may be removed from the membership by the Himachal Pradesh Marketing Board on the report of the Secretary or Chairman of the Market Committee.
